DINNERS AT ALL EMBASSIES

Functions in Honor of Special Ambassadors to the Coronation. Services in Churches.

LONDON, June 26.-King George and Queen Mary spent a quiet Sunday on board the royal yacht at Portsmouth. The only function of the day was an informal review of the local naval and militia veterans. There were 140 of the ancient fighters lined up at the dockyard. Many of them were infirm and had been maimed in the wars. The king and queen chatted with the veterans and questioned them about their experiences. One said:

"I was boatswain's mate aboard the Al bert, sir, when you were there. were the worry of my life, sir." Another reminded the king how, when a cadet on board the Britannia, they pelted him with sugar.
